

COMING HOME

TO
*G*ERMAN TOWN

Elizabethtown
Paul

Time's on its side: St. Therese Catholic Church (above), built in 1927, anchors the intersection of Germantown's Kentucky and Schiller avenues; 84-year-old Hauck's Handy Store (right) on Goss Avenue.

Operation bright side: Mulberry Street mainstay Gus Ballard (left) and his wonderful world of backyard color; the neighborhood's tidiness fetish extends beyond its houses' property lines (above).

Photos by John Nation